Hua Hin

history Shortly after World War I, 1920s

Since The Southern Railroad was constructed to give people opportunities to travel overland all the way to the Malaysian border, the beach of Hua Hin has enjoyed a solid reputation as "the famous seaside resort of Siam" where visitors could enjoy swimming, fishing, and golfing on the country's first standard course (Hua Hin Royal Golf Course) during the weekends. Hua Hin's rise came with the opening of the Railway Hotel (Hotel Sofitel Central), after the Southern line was completed. It was an elegant Victorian structure on the shore with vast rooms, private verandah, fancy fretwork decoration and wickerwork chairs in the lounge.

Soon afterwards a first complex of bungalows (Central Hua Hin Village) was built together with a Victorian-style gazebo on a scenic group of rocks near Hua Hin Village, and this place, later, was selected as a venue in the film "The Devil's Paradise", as well as the Railway Hotel, which portrayed Phnom Penh's leading hotel in the hectic days just before that city's fall in the film "The Killing Fields".

Nowadays, among the development of the world, Hua Hin's pleasures are still placid, not all that different, indeed, from those enjoyed by the aristocratic visitors of its past. That's Hua Hin - the oldest beach resort of Siam with a sense of history and a peaceful but scenic atmosphere. That's beloved Hua Hin.

Hua Hin beach and horse riding:

is something that perfectly matched together for a nice and enjoyable activity for tourists. There are around 60 horses scatter on Hua Hin beach everyday. Most of them are gather at the main beach entrance (East of Damnernkasem Rd., close to Sofitel Hotel) waiting for tourists to hop on. You can choose any horse that you like & suit to you body and skill for your trip. The jockey will help you to get on the horse and guide you what to do when you are on the horse the horse to make sure that you will be safe and enjoy the moment.

During the Trip, beside beauty scene of blue sea and white sandy beach, you can enjoy observing the Hua Hin's summer houses which some of them are very old and should be conserved, some of them has been renovated and this will give you the sensation of Hua Hin as it is known as the first beach resort of Thailand.

Hua Hin Fishing Pier: At the north end of Naresdamri Rd., you will find a Fishing Pier where many local people come here for different purposes, some come for fishing for game or living, some come for just a break of the day, some come for walking, jogging or seabreeze, some come for fishery business, some come for seeing sunset or sunrise, and this is a nice scene of Hua Hin's life. Also many of tourists come and spend time to observe many of activities around here, and see a wonderful panoramic view of Hua Hin town.

HUA HIN RAILWAY STATION

(Hua Hin 76)

Built in the reign of King Rama VI, the station is one of Thailand's oldest railway stations. In addition, it is one of the country's most beautiful train stations with unique architecture. Its most striking feature is the splendid Royal Waiting Room constructed in the Thai architectural style. The room was relocated from Sanam Chan Palace in Nakhon Pathom Province during the reign of King Rama VI.

PONE KINGPETCH STATUE

Damnernkasem Rd. (Hua Hin 76)

Pone Kingpetch or Mana Seedok-buab is Thailand's 3 times Flyweight world boxing champion. He was born in Hua Hin on 12 February 1935. He became Thailand's first world boxing champion on 16 April 1960 when he defeated Pascual Pérez of Argentina at Lumpini boxing stadium in Bangkok.

His victory brought such a proud to all Thai people especially Hua Hin people. Pone died in the 1982 at the age of 47.

There are hundreds of restaurants scattering around Hua Hin. Some of them open in the town area where is well known place for tourists like Naresdamri Rd., and many of them are settled away from the center of town.

Naresdamri Road - The Food District : If you find where Hilton Hotel is, you will find Naresdamri Road. This road is the most popular food district in Hua Hin. You can enjoy Thai dishes, seafood, sushi, pasta, pizza, stirloin steak or whatever that will suite to your taste.

Stay away from crowd : Many restaurants outside downtown have a decent seaside atmosphere which could give you an unforgettable dining experience such as Coco 51 & The Dukes. at Hua Hin soi 51. Some restaurants not only provide excellent food but also performance or show which will make your meal more perfect such as Sasi Dinner Theatre in Takiab area. .

Travel globally - eat locally : Hua Hin Night Market could be one stop for your food curiosity. Many local restaurants along the way will make you think " I want to give them a try."

California Steak House & Cantina

In the heart of Hua Hin, the restaurant is easy to locate as it sits directly across from the Sofitel Hotel and Resort. The restaurant interior is just as you would expect from a Cantina serving food to wranglers from the Southwest part of the country.

The interior offers wooden framed chairs and fans for diners while the outside terrace area is a hit with many guests. The atmosphere is casual and relaxed.

Best Margaritas in Town served in Huge Glass or by the Pitcher. Serving Steaks, Salmon, St Louis Ribs, BBQ, Mexican, and Thai.

1 Khao Takiap

or Chopstick Mountain

This hill is only 4 kms. south of Hua Hin. There is a road leading to the top where a temple is situated. Many observation areas scatter around the hill, and from the view points, you will see Hua Hin city along with white sand beach as a bird eye view, which is one of a decent view of this town. Many monkeys also live up there, that's the reason why some people also call the monkey hill. At the base, north side of the hill, the Giant Golden Buddha Statue stands against the cliff, and this has been a symbolic of Khao Takiap for a long time. Around Takiap area, there are many of seafood restaurants where you can dine before or after your trip to the top of Khao Takiap.

2 Suan Son Pradipaht

or Sea Pine Tree Garden

This beach area belongs to the Army Welfare Office and is open to the public. It is at Km. 241, some 8 kms. South of Hua Hin. The beach continues from the back side of Kao Takiap. it's very popular for thai people to spend a moment of family together.

3 Khao Tao

(Khao means Hill, Tao means Turtle)

This Hill is about 13 km. south of Hua Hin on the Petchakasem Road. It is another tranquil spot with Thai temple, many buddha statues, shrines, fishing village, and fresh water lake. Next to the hill is two quiet beaches called Hat Sai Noi and Hat Sai Yai, which are the locations for some restaurants and bungalows. This place could be your half-day trip to enjoy nice scenery of culture and nature.

Located in Hua Hin Soi 88, Mini Farm Kitchen is owned and operated by Khun Theeranuch Wongprachanukul and her mother, an expert in Thai food who loves to cook more than anything else in the world. She opened this restaurant simply because she has a strong desire to cook and offer her tasty dishes to others.

Here is an open-air restaurant which offers a fine selection of authentic Thai food, seafood and European food. For European food, our chef has over 30 years experience in the western kitchens of some leading hotels, so the quality and taste of food can be guaranteed as well. All dishes in our menu are not only delicious, but also made of high quality ingredients that are always particularly chosen.

Leisure Route

around Hua Hin

It's not a bad idea to start from historic place- Hua Hin Railway station, where you can touch a feeling of Hua Hin in 1920s, when most people arrived and left this beach resort by train. This is a nice place to take a picture for your memory about Hua Hin.

Walk straight to the east on Damneonkasem Rd., you'll see Pon Kingpetch (1st Thai boxing who won the World Boxing Champion) statue stands on the right side. Across the main street-Petchkasem Rd., pass the Post office you will find many of nice restaurants in European style especially Italian. Go furthermore to very end of the road; you will enter another symbolic place of Hua Hin- Sofitel Central Hotel (1st hotel built in Hua Hin), where its landscape is unique by formed tree. Take some time relax at the Museum Café in the beautiful colonial architecture. (Suggest walking in from the side and outing at the main entrance.)

From the front of Sofitel Central's main entrance (Naresdamri Rd.), keep going on north, Hilton hotel seems to be a Landmark for Hua Hin already since more than 10 years ago (nice viewpoint on the 17th floor). Just follow the light, many kinds of restaurants, tailors, and souvenir shops along both side the road well describe why some people name this path "the Golden Mile". As you pass Hilton, small alley on the right will lead you to the terrace by the sea- another observation deck at the heart of Hua Hin.

All the way to the end, Fishing Pier is another spot that you could see Hua Hin in a wide skyline panorama. Coming in a right time, and you will see the nature sun beautifully set down behind the hill.

Back to Dechanuchit road, which leads you to the famous Hua Hin night market, where you could feel and touch the ordinary Thai way of life.

Approximate time spending: 2 hrs.

You may find a nice place for your dinner during your leisure trip.

After a walk at Night Market, other choices of optional routes are available with some scattering retail stores along. Also, nightlife area is just a short distance away.

Pak Nam Pran

WHERE to Go

The fishing village of Pak Nam Pran is situated just 25 km from Hua Hin in the district of Pranburi. It is a vibrant fishing port known all over Thailand for its squid specialities and colourful fishing boats. Once you turn off the main highway 12 km south of Hua Hin, the road leads you through a myriad of pineapple plantations producing the sweetest and juiciest fruit you will find anywhere in Thailand.

The 7-kilometre beach front between the village and Kao Kalok is fast becoming the Thai Riviera, where top-class boutique and small traditional-style resorts blend with the beauty of the unspoilt local scenery.

A major attraction in the area is the Pranburi Forest Park with its walkway through the middle of a beautifully preserved natural mangrove forest, teeming with various species of crabs.

Pak Nam Pran is situated at the estuary of the Pranburi River, which flows 130 km. from Kaeng Krachan National Park before entering the Gulf of Thailand. The river and local area is filled with wildlife, including the most beautiful Kingfishers, Egrets, Ospreys, Wild Peacock and over 3 metre long amphibious Monitor Lizards.

One of the most relaxing ways to enjoy the area is from the water. Mermaid Cruises is a local boat operator that runs sea cruises down to Monkey Island and Kao Sam Roi Yod National Park, as well as kayak tours and eco-river tours through the mangroves on Thailand's only virtually silent, electrically powered long-tail boat. They also have a small restaurant right on the river bank.

Accommodation in Hua Hin

There is no shortage of accommodation in Hua Hin. Guesthouses providing fan rooms for as less as 300 Baht ++ per day or air-conditioned rooms from 600Baht ++ per day abound in and around downtown of Hua Hin.

Also, well-decorated guesthouses could be your good choice for 750-1200 Baht++. Other 3 and 4 stars hotels & resorts are also available with prices range between 850 - 2000 Baht++ per day. All rooms are air-conditioned and some of them feature a swimming pool.

Five stars hotels and resorts are all along the beachfront in the city center or just on the outskirts of the town. Prices range from around 4000 Bath ++ for a standard room and are of an international standard providing all the facilities of a very high standard.

During the High Season - November through to April, accommodation is usually hard to find and it is advisable to book well in advance specially during the weekends.
